National Day of the Cowboy Rodeo

Did not do well this year. The cook shack saved us. Will be more prepared if we decide to do another one next year. Blue Springs did not do well also.

Old Business

The Sullivan Municipal Utilities bill received was for 6/1 through 6/23 and the amount was $81.58. We do not know the date that the electric bill was reinstated to us. We still have some dead trees/limbs. Jack will contact the Engineering Department at City Hall and ask them to take care of this.

New Business

Nominations for the 2016 show season are as follows: President, Kelly Onder, Vice-President, Teri Feller, Secretary, Mary Loomis and Treasurer, Pam Ramsey. The nominations are open until August 30th. Any other nominations are to be directed to the current President, Jack Medling. Jack was asked if he could take on the project of getting sponsors and getting the show book for 2016. He said that he would. We discussed possible ways to get more money into the club and offer activities that would bring in riders and families. A motion was made by Myra Modglin to have the Awards Banquet at the Sullivan Community Center again, seconded by Pam Ramsey. Motion passed. Jack will make the reservation.

Mary Loomis moved to adjourn. Pam Ramsey seconded. Meeting adjourned at 7:45.
