All big items for the club have been paid for. Motion to accept made by Cindy Beckett, seconded by Mary Loomis.

Sponsorship

Jack had a total of $870.00 that was deposited in February.

Show Committee Report

Sullivan Veterinary will be doing the Coggins Clinic this year. The date is 3/28. Ashley has flyers to hand out. Will have breakfast from 9 to 12. Sarah Haring will make homemade biscuits, Teri Feller will get sausage patties from Central and will make gravy and pick up pancake mix.

Membership

7 membership renewals were taken at the meeting.

National Day of the Cowboy Rodeo

Report given by John Janish. Proposal to the rodeo company was for a 2 day rodeo with no late runs (slack). The rodeo company wants $800.00 and the first $1,500.00 of gate money. After the $1,500.00 has been collected the balance that is collected over the two days will be shared with the club. 50% for the rodeo and 50% for the club. We will need to supply hay and feed for the livestock. We will also help with the advertising. We would like to have professional vendors at the rodeo. A motion was made by Leann Atkins that we go ahead and approve the 2 day rodeo with their requirements, Anna Scantlan seconded. Motion passed.

Old Business

The club will pay for t-shirts for workers. Jack has a sign-up sheet. Jack is sure MCFLY will be doing the cookshack for the fair and will want all days including Wednesday for the Youth Show.

Jack has some topsoil at his house and Bink will transport the dirt from Jack's house to the arena for $150.00. Linda Schafer made the motion that we pay Bink for a load and see how the arena is after adding. Sarah Haring seconded. Motion passed.

Jack will verify that MCFLY will be running the cook shack for the fair. May want Wednesday of the Youth Show also.

Insulation in the ceiling-Jack will look at previous minutes to find the 3 companies that had given estimates to have them do a current estimate.

New Business

John Janish moved to adjourn. Mary Loomis seconded. Meeting adjourned at 7:40.
